

Kirk MacCulloch, LLB, B.Comm,
President

Kirk MacCulloch is President of Fairwyn Developments Limited and associated companies. He has extensive experience in all aspects of the development industry extending over 35 years. Since initiating the Fairwyn group of companies in 1979, Kirk has been responsible for the development of new projects in Atlantic Canada comprising over 2.5 million square feet. His private development experience includes office buildings, apartment buildings, condominiums, shopping centres, subdivisions, and industrial and commercial buildings.

Kirk has been recognized widely for his vision, creativity and expertise in structuring Public-Private Partnerships for schools, city halls and other public infrastructure. He has provided P3 consulting services to all three levels of government, municipalities, not-for-profit organizations, as well as to the private sector. He has also participated in a number of regional and national conferences on Public-Private Partnering as a speaker and panel member. He is a nationally recognized expert on the subject, with clients across Canada and in parts of the United States.

Under Kirk's direction as CEO, Nova Learning Inc., an associated company, has developed and operates nine Public-Private Partnership (P3) schools totaling over 650,000 square feet for the Province of Nova Scotia. The O'Connell Drive Elementary School was awarded the Canadian Council for Public-Private Partnerships' 1998 National Award for Innovation and Excellence. In addition to the Nova Learning schools, Kirk has developed several P3 projects for municipalities, including two city halls.
